Installation guide:

Behringer JT-4000 Micro - Microsphere Sound Pack

Before transferring sound sets to your synths, please backup your patches!

In order to install his Behringer JT-4000 Micro sound pack, you'll need a computer, a stable USB connection and a SysEx librarian of your choice. You can use a MIDI librarian application such as 'SysEx Librarian' for Macintosh, or 'MIDIIOX' for Windows.

1. Connect your JT-4000 Micro to a computer using a USB cable
2. Open your SysEx librarian software and load the sysex file "Limbic_Bits_JT-4000_Microsphere".
3. On the JT-4000, press the "Settings" button and move the program select potentiometer until the menu shows "SysEx Receive Listening". That allows the JT-4000 to receive SysEx from an external source using the USB socket.
4. Now, configure your SysEx librarian to send SysEx by selecting the JT-4000 Micro USB connection. PLEASE NOTE! The next step will replace any existing programs in those same memory locations on the synth so be sure to make a backup first.
5. Transmit the programs. You should see a SysEx-Receive successful message immediately. Hit "Func" again and start making music.

Trouble Shooting

In case something went wrong, please

- use a direct USB connection instead of a USB HUB
- try a different USB cable
- try to use a 5-pin-MIDI interface instead of USB
